exhibition by his rough riders, consisting of broncho busting, wild steer roping and riding, etc.

Miss Lucile Muthall will appear on her famous horse Governor, and Frank E. Flig. 18. The managing director of the Boer War, has also kindly consented to appear on his world-renowned horse Pravero, which has become the talk of every visitor to the Boer War Exhibit. Miss Muthall and Mr. Fillis will give a most interesting exhibition, which is expected to cause considerable comment.

The items comprising the programme of the military tournament are new to America, such as the Victoria Cross race, in which race each rider shows how the greatest of all honors of the British army is won; a horse and rider shows how the greatest of all honors of the British army is won; a horse and rider shows how the greatest of all honors of the British army is won; a horse and rider shows how the greatest of all honors of the British army is won; a horse and rider shows how the fence, picking up a dumny man and riding away amidst a hail of fire.

Another competition will be the "tug of war" on horseback, with teams of six to a side, each team riding bareback. Following the "tug of war" is wrestling bareback. Lemon cutting will be another feature. In this competition the solder at full gallop slices a lemon with his aword, which is dangling in the air supported by a stick and a piece of string.

The tent pegging shows how a lancer with his favorite weapon can pick up a small 2-inch head peg driven over ten inches into the ground. This feat is also performed at full gallop.
